DOUGIE FREEDMAN

Good afternoon and welcome to today's game against Middlesbrough. As always, I'd like to extend that welcome to Tony Mowbray, his players, staff and supporters, as well as our match sponsors Prestons of Bolton.

With two remaining matches to play here at the Reebok, we have the opportunity to pick up what could prove to be important points. You, the fans, have a vital part to play in that.

The spirit both on and off the field, and in and around the club is fantastic – there is a really good feeling about the place. We will need that passion and support from you again today.

The atmosphere in our last home game against Wolves was first class. Fans are really now getting right behind the team. From the first whistle to the last, both home and away, you have been vocal and committed and that has to be the case again this afternoon.

We have worked hard to get where we are at this stage of the season. Our home form has been key and we know that we will have to work hard today against a strong Middlesbrough side.

Our structure on the pitch gives us stability and that stability, in turn, gives us confidence. We have high standards and the players know what I expect from them in training and in matches. They know and understand their roles and are well prepared.

Since I arrived at the club we have developed a real resilience and all of these factors have helped see us secure eight wins in our last 11 games.

I think that resilience has been evident in a number of our recent performances, particularly in the away win at Bristol City. When they equalised they threw everything at us in search of the winner, but, man for man, we stood up to the test well and were eventually able to go and get the decisive goal.

On Tuesday night we once again gave it everything we had, but it just wasn't to be our night. The only disappointment from my point of view was that we conceded a second goal so quickly after the first. The effort and commitment was certainly there for everyone to see. If we maintain those levels between now and the end of the season we'll certainly gain points.

Picking up injuries is something that you can't legislate for, as has been the case with Jay Spearing and David Ngog. On the other side, it has been pleasing to have involved Josh Vela, Sanmi Odelusi, Chris Lester and Tom Eaves in the first team. They have all earned this through their hunger and desire in training, where they have shown that they are ready to step up. I am enjoying working with them.

We have had a massive response with our season tickets sales, with more than 8,500 of you already pledging your early support to us for next season. I have been told that that is a record number of in-season renewals and it really is a great testament to your backing of the club.

Enjoy the game this afternoon.

KEVIN DAVIES

Good afternoon and welcome back to the Reebok Stadium for this afternoon's game against Middlesbrough.

There's a quiet determination amongst the lads as we approach the final few games of the season.

The fact that we've still got everything to play for at this stage is testament to the hard work that has been put in both on and off the pitch.

The lads put in a real shift and the commitment and desire was certainly there for everyone to see against Leicester. I don't think there could have been any arguments had we picked up at least a point.

It was good to see Tom Eaves make his first team debut. Since he signed for the club he's always impressed in training and is a real handful for defenders.

He's done really well out on loan a couple of times this season and he now adds another option to our first team squad at this crucial stage of the season.

It was also good to see young Josh Vela step up to the plate once again. He displayed maturity beyond his years once again with his performance and certainly has a big future at Bolton Wanderers. I've no doubt that he'll continue to get better and better with more experience.

In our two most recent away games the fans were once again fantastic. I've said it throughout my career, the Bolton fans have always been great to me. There's no doubting that they will have an important role to play between now and the end of the season.

We're all keen to extend our run of home wins this afternoon, though we know Middlesbrough will provide difficult opposition.

Hopefully we can turn in a good performance and come out on the right side of the result.

Everyone has worked so hard to get to this point and it would be great if we could send the supporters home happy this evening.

Thanks once again.

ANNUAL SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE AND THANKSGIVING

The Annual Service of Remembrance will take place at the Reebok Stadium on Tuesday 21st May starting at pitch side at 6.30pm and will be conducted by the Club Chaplain Phil Mason.

The service will then continue in the Platinum Suite with music from the Smithills School Senior Brass Band.

During the service names of loved ones that have been inscribed in the Memorial Book or engraved on a Memorial Stone during the past twelve months will be read out.

All the names of loved ones to be remembered from previous years will be displayed in the big screen.

Within the service, people will be invited to come forward and light candles in memory of their loved ones.

This year the final arrangements for the Nat Lofthouse Statue and surrounding memorial walk way will be shared which is due to be unveiled and opened around the 27th August which is the anniversary of Nat's birthday. Phil Mason said "The service is always a very moving occasion and it is good to come together as the Bolton Wanderers family to remember and support one another in this special way. This year we shall also be thinking about the unveiling of the Nat Lofthouse Memorial Statue and it seems very appropriate that we share how it will finally look within the context of this service".

Light refreshments will be served following the service.

CLUB AWARD FOR STAFF MEMBER

Prior to the recent home game against Wolves, Bolton Wanderers announced the recipient of the club's 'George Warburton Outstanding Service Award'.

Each year, the club acknowledges an individual who has been recognised for their contributions and loyalty to the football club.

After almost 45 years of service to the club, Joseph McGlynn had his name engraved on the bronze plaque in the reception area of the Reebok Stadium alongside last year's winners Nat Lofthouse OBE and Eddie Davies CBE/OBE. A number of the club's directors and staff, including chairman Phil Gartside, were present at the ceremony.

"I'm very humbled to have received this award," Joseph said. "It means a lot to me. A big part of it is about the people who I work with - I'd like to dedicate it to them."

BOLTON WANDERERS ARE CURRENTLY LOOKING FOR SUPPORTER MEMBERS TO BE PART OF TWO NEW FOCUS GROUPS.

Both the disabled supporter and the home matchday experience and attendance working groups will gather at the Reebok Stadium to share their thoughts on a range of plans, with the opportunity to propose and originate ideas.

The groups are scheduled to meet a number of times during the season.

Head of Public Sales Richard Gough said: "We have always benefited from our feedback focus groups, with a number of ideas and issues developing from those meetings, such as FanZone and elements of our ticketing policy.

"These two groups allow us to keep our ideas fresh with direct input from the fans about their off-field matchday experience."

Any Wanderers supporter interested in taking part in either of the groups, or requiring more information, should contact customerservices@bwfc.co.uk.

Supporters should be aware that the deadline for applications to both groups is April 30.

INTERNATIONAL SOCCER SCHOOL

A group of Bolton Wanderers' International Soccer School students recently scooped TTD Dubai Super Cup at a special event held at Dubai Sports City.

The ISS students, aged between 16 and 19, were winners of the eight-team tournament contested by clubs from around the world. The five-day competition saw Wanderers top their initial group of four with an unblemished record. Victories over Al Muntasir (2-0), Kings UAE (3-1) and, most impressively, the Real Madrid Foundation (6-0) booked a place in the semi-finals.

A 2-1 win over Le Club then followed, before two-time champions Precor were defeated 2-0 in the showpiece final in front of a bumper crowd containing chairman Phil Gartside, who was on hand to distribute the winners' medals.

"It was an extremely proud moment," Gartside said. "The boys have been training very hard throughout the year and the outcome of the tournament is a showcase for the BWFC ISS. The athletes will never forget the experience; I hope it inspires them to move onto greater things.

"The whole tournament proved a success and for our lads to come out on top in the final was a great achievement. They and their families should be very proud."

STUART HOLDEN

GREAT TO BE BACK

Stuart Holden is back where he belongs - on the football pitch. After a long road back from injury Holden's journey to full first team football at Bolton Wanderers is almost complete. Now he's keen to make up for lost time and repay those that have stood by him, as he told the matchday programme.

ONE-ON-ONE

Why the change to squad number 22? Was the goal against Blackburn his best yet? What does he miss most about living in the USA? And what of his appearance on FIFA13?

WE PUT YOUR QUESTIONS TO...

STUART HOLDEN

Whatever the rest of Stuart Holden's Bolton Wanderers career holds, one thing is for sure – he'll forever remain a fans' favourite. And judging by the reaction of the American as he reads over pages of supporters' questions paying little attention to his skim cappuccino, the feeling is mutual.

His long-awaited returned from a troublesome knee problem came away at Sunderland in the FA Cup earlier this year, before 11 days later he stepped back out at the Reebok for the first time in over 22 months to a standing ovation in another cup game, Everton the opponents.

Voted the club's Player of the Year in the 2010/11 season, the all-action international is approaching the end of a loan spell at Sheffield Wednesday, where he has gained valuable competitive game time as the Owls attempt preserve their top flight status. With a new contract at Wanderers very much in the pipeline, we took time to catch up with Holden following a recent training session in South Yorkshire.

How are you enjoying your time at Sheffield Wednesday?

From @BWfcGoals via Twitter

I'm really enjoying it. All of the lads have been very welcoming and it has been great to come and get some quality game time under my belt. When I spoke with the manager we both agreed that this is what was best for me. Everyone at Bolton is doing what's best for me at the moment and I'm very appreciative of that.

How did it feel to start your first competitive game for Sheffield Wednesday after such a long time out injured?

Susan Palmer via Facebook

That was when I knew I was back essentially. I want to be starting games. I want to be back and playing every single game! It's the natural instinct of a competitor. Just to be in that environment again, it made me feel I'm back from injury and ready to push on now and take it to the next level.

How do you feel physically?

Gabby Stollert via Facebook

My strength is there, my fitness is there, it's just building on that. You can always get fitter; you can always get stronger in little ways like that. And that's what's going to come in games. Getting knocked off the ball, riding a challenge, going to shoot and someone slide tackling you; you can't replicate that in rehab and training as much as you want to. Those are things I'm looking to get more of and in each game just getting better and more comfortable, and just getting back to the level I was at two years ago.

What is your favourite goal you have ever scored for Bolton?

From Admir_BWFC via Twitter

That's an easy one, it's without doubt the goal against Blackburn. To score the winner in a local derby and seeing everyone going bananas was a feeling I'll never forget. I think it was made all the more special, as we had just conceded a goal and the game was up in the

that goal back so many times. It gives me goose-

air. To go from the low of conceding to the high of scoring the winner late on was amazing.

I've actually watched that goal back so many times throughout my rehabilitation. It gives me goose-pimples and was a great way to pick myself up during the long days of working back to full fitness.

Why did you choose to wear number 22 this season?

From @JoeCamm36 via Twitter

It was my first ever squad number at Houston Dynamo and it turned into a bit of a lucky number. After my recent bad luck I felt it was time for a change at the start of this season, so when 22 became available it was an obvious choice.

Without football, what do you think you'd be doing right now?

From @MarkLawrence via Twitter

I fancy myself as a bit of an entrepreneur, so I would probably look at starting my own business. I'm not sure what it would be in though, and I'd probably need a few business partners to help me out!

If you could take anything from America and bring it over to England, what would it be?

From @bwfcjohn via Twitter

I'd certainly bring the Texas sunshine! I'd also bring some authentic Tex-Mex food as I feel like I've been craving a burrito for the last three years!

I'm a Bolton and Chung-Yong Lee fan from Korea. What do you think of Chungy?

From @sonny_40 via Twitter

I love Chungy, he's a top man! He doesn't live too far away from me so we often share lifts to away matches. He's even started to teach me a bit of Korean and we get on very well. I've been out for Korean food with him before and when we travel together we often call at Starbucks.

Which player has the best and worst dress sense at Bolton?

From @boltonfan09 via Twitter

The best dressed would probably have to be either myself or Marcos Alonso. The worst would probably be between David Wheeler, Tim Ream and Andy Lonergan.

What music do you like to listen to before matches?

From @daidzo88 via Twitter

I'm really liking the new Lumineers album and Foster The People at the moment. When it's in the run-up to a game I usually listen to house music.

Aside from anywhere in USA or England, where is your favourite place to visit in the world?

From @JoshBWFC via Twitter

My favourite holiday destination so far would have to be Turks and Caicos in the Caribbean. I went with my family last year and it was amazing. The weather was beautiful and it was just a great place to relax and recharge the batteries.

When will this shirt swap happen? I need to get myself a Stu Holden jersey!

From @Gret1982 (Gretar Steinsson) via Twitter

Gretski! Sorry mate, you've got to come back to England for that to happen you nutter!

Do you see yourself getting back into the United States national team anytime soon?

From @Netterisbetter via Twitter

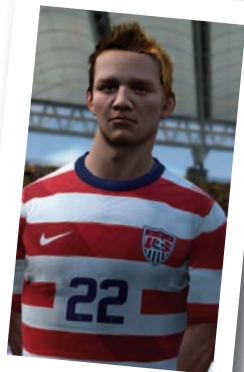

It's always an honour to represent your country and I hope that opportunity comes around again sooner rather than later. Some of my best memories in the game have come wearing the USA jersey – playing and scoring in the 2008 Olympics in Beijing and of course the 2010 World Cup in South Africa.

If the opportunity does come about I'll certainly be ready to grab it with both hands.

How does it feel to play as yourself on FIFA?

From @TomWright_96 via Twitter

A little weird to be honest! It was surreal the first time I scored a goal with myself, but it's about time they fixed my hair!

BRISTOL CITY V WANDERERS

Substitute Craig Davies scored from the penalty spot eleven minutes from time to secure a 2-1 win for Bolton Wanderers at Bristol City.

The energetic frontman emerged from the bench to coolly slot home to guarantee Wanderers' third consecutive league win.

Dougie Freedman's men went ahead inside the opening two minutes courtesy of an own goal from Liam Fontaine after a dangerous low cross from towering midfielder Darren Pratley.

In the 48th minute, from the run of play, City equalised after danger man Adomah escaped the challenge of Alonso to cross for the incoming run of Davies to head home his 13th of the campaign.

Bolton were awarded a penalty after Ngog was fouled by Welsh international Lewis Nyatanga and Davies calmly slotted the spot kick down the middle to seal their fourth away win of the season.

MANAGER'S REACTION:

“It was a great effort today, we deserved all three points. We had a tremendous backing, more than 1,200 supporters made the trip and that is always a boost. We showed great character and a real desire to scoring the winning goal. ”

LEICESTER CITY V WANDERERS

Bolton Wanderers' late rally at the King Power Stadium couldn't find an equaliser with a 3-2 defeat at the hands of Leicester City.

The Whites battled bravely throughout and took the lead early on with David Ngog hitting the back of the net from the penalty spot.

But City went into the interval ahead with two quick fire goals at the end of the first half through Chris Wood and Lloyd Dyer.

Darren Pratley made it 2-2 midway through the second half but Leicester found the winning goal with 12 minutes to go after Jeff Schlupp's long range strike found a way past the Bolton defence.

Freedman's men didn't let their heads drop but despite their efforts to find a second equaliser, Leicester held on to claim all three points February.

MANAGER'S REACTION:

“It was a fantastic, top quality Championship game. My players gave every single ounce of effort, but it just wasn't to be but the game could have gone either way.

“Sometimes things go for you, sometimes they don't but if we continue like we have over the next period of games we will get the results.”

HOME FORM

Today marks the penultimate npower Championship game at the Reebok Stadium this season with the Whites unbeaten at home in 2013, winning their last seven home matches.

In recent weeks, Wanderers have claimed victories over promotion hopefuls Hull City and Brighton plus the bragging rights in the local derbies against neighbours Burnley and Blackburn Rovers.

In today's issue of the matchday programme we take a look back at ten other season where Wanderers' home form proved to be pivotal.

◀ 1953/54

In their best finish since the Second World War, Wanderers boasted the best home record in the First Division with only one defeat at the hands of Preston North End. Memorable wins for the Whites came against Liverpool, Tottenham, Arsenal and Blackpool.

1958/59 ▶

After winning the FA Cup with victory over Manchester United, Wanderers embarked on a strong league campaign, eclipsing their fifth placed finish of the previous five years.

Sitting in just behind champions Wolves, United and Arsenal, the Whites finished four and claimed a number of big wins in a season which is fondly remembered by the older generation of Bolton supporters.

◀ 1972/73

Bolton's home form heavily contributed in their promotion to the second tier of English football with Jimmy Armfield's men unbeaten in 23 of their 24 games at Burnden Park. The Whites suffered a late scare when fellow promotion chasers Blackburn Rovers won by a solitary goal with one month to run of the campaign, but Bolton held out to win the title.

1977/78 ▶

Four years after winning the Third Division title, Bolton claimed the Second Division championship beating fellow promotion hopefuls Southampton and Tottenham Hotspurs. Only suffering one defeat at home all season, Bolton finished the season with 24 wins overall, finishing one point ahead of Southampton on 58 points.

◀ 1978/79

Wanderers' first season back in the top flight in over a decade saw the club lose the opening game of the season at Burnden Park against Bristol City. Thereafter only European hopefuls Nottingham Forest, WBA and Ipswich Town denied Ian Greaves' side maximum points but the defeat at home to the Tractor Boys in April 1979 was cushioned by Frank Worthington's memorable volley.

1987/88 ▶

Back in Division Four, Bolton dropped points on their own patch on two occasions against Hartlepool United and Torquay United. The season went down to the wire, with Bolton confirming promotion at Wrexham on the final day courtesy of a goal from midfield favourite Robbie Savage.

◀ 1992/93

After a mixed start to life as Bolton manager, former Scotland international Bruce Rioch led the Whites to an almost unblemished record during the second half of the 1992-93 campaign. With Brighton the only side to earn victory at Burnden Park, Wanderers only lost a handful of games and finished runners up to eventual champions Stoke City.

1996/97 ▶

During the final season at Burnden Park, Wanderers won 19 of their 23 First Division as they won promotion to the Premier League. In a memorable campaign, Bolton's highest victory came in March 1997 when the Whites ran out 7-0 winners over Swindon Town.

◀ 2005/06

Sam Allardyce's Bolton enjoyed their best spell in the Premier League in 2005/06 in front of their home fans. With the club competing in the UEFA Cup, Wanderers suffered defeat at the Reebok only twice with Everton and Manchester United victorious.

2010/11 ▶

Wanderers amassed ten victories in front of their home fans during Owen Coyle's first full season in charge including wins against Tottenham, Arsenal and Newcastle United.

An early season run saw Bolton sit pretty amongst the giants of English football with only four teams beating the Whites on their own turf.

DIVISION ONE 20 APRIL 1963Burnden Park ATTENDANCE 13,411Wanderers 4 - 1 Villa

WANDERERS: Hopkinson, Hartle, Hatton, Rimmer, Edwards, Lennard, Lee, Russell, Davies, Deakin, Butler.

Fifty years ago today, Wanderers entertained Aston Villa with the Whites in search of a vital three points to ensure First Division football at Burnden Park the following season.

Like many clubs, Wanderers were playing catch up due to a number of games being postponed courtesy of the weather, with teams playing once every four days.

Times were changing for the North West club, as Nat Lofthouse, Tommy Banks and John Higgins had all retired, plus Ray Harris, Dennis Stevens and Dougie Holden all departed for pastures new.

However, their boots had been filled by youngsters and the previous month Wanderers fielded their youngest ever forward line including Franny Lee, Freddie Hill, Wynn Davies, Brian Bromley and Dennis Butler.

With Leyton Orient firmly adrift at the bottom of the table, it became an immediate battle between Wanderers, Manchester United, Manchester City, Birmingham City and Ipswich Town to avoid the drop, with one team destined for Second Division football the following season.

A tricky task against Villa waited for the boys in white, but Bolton made sure of all three points with a great all round team performance.

Welshman Davies showed his potential by scoring his eighth and ninth goals of the season. Butler and Peter Deakin were also on the scoresheet against the Midlands outfit.

Encouraged by their win with eight games to go, Bolton guaranteed their survival in the middle of May, recording two home wins in three days against Liverpool and Leicester City, with Manchester City suffering the heart ache of relegation.

DIVISION THREE 20 APRIL 1985*Priestfield ATTENDANCE 5,132Gillingham 2 - 3 Wanderers

WANDERERS: Farnworth, Borrowes, Phillips, Joyce, Valentine, Deakin, Thompson, Chandler, Oghani, Caldwell, Rudge, Sub - Foster.

Twenty two years on from their survival campaign in 1962/63, Wanderers were once again going through a transitional period at Burnden Park.

Manager John McGovern was replaced by Charlie Wright after the Whites dropped to the bottom of the league table.

Relegation was a possibility, but Bolton put themselves in with a fighting chance after winning four league games on the bounce under Wright's stewardship.

However, Bolton's form soon dipped, picking up only one point in 27, seeing the club at risk of playing Fourth Division football the following season.

Fortunately, as April came around, the ship was steading and Wanderers embarked on a run of 10 points from a possible 15, including home wins over Wigan Athletic and Newport County.

The trip to Gillingham was going to be tough as the Kent outfit were pushing for promotion and on a good run of form heading into the contest at Priestfield.

The match lived up to expectations with a five goal thriller occurring as Tony Caldwell, Jeff Chandler and George Oghani all getting their names on the score sheet.

A 1-1 draw against Brentford the following week at home made sure Bolton would avoid the drop and ply their trade in Division Three next season.

NORTH WEST AMBULANCE SERVICE IS A KEY PARTNER OF THE HEARTS & GOALS INITIATIVE

Launched in October 2012, Hearts & Goals is campaigning to help prevent death from sudden cardiac arrest.

NWAS provide vital support to the campaign by not only raising awareness but delivering practical benefits by giving communities across the borough of Bolton access to defibrillators, as well as CPR and defibrillator training so that lives can be saved.

David McNally, Community Resuscitation Development Manager said, "This is a fantastic campaign and NWAS are delighted to be supporting the Hearts and Goals campaign. In the event of a person suffering cardiac arrest, quick action can be taken to give the patient the best chance of survival.

It is proven that in every minute that passes without intervention, the chances of survival decreases by 14%. Effective CPR and defibrillation ensures the patient has the best chance of survival.

AEDs save lives. By working in partnership delivering Emergency Life Support to the communities this will enable the treatment of the patient to start prior to the arrival of the ambulance service giving the best possible chances of survival.

The Resuscitation Council (UK) strongly recommends the implementation of early defibrillation in cardiac arrests and through widespread deployment of AEDs we can help to reduce mortality rates from cardiac arrests."

Fulham 4 - 1 Wanderers

Tom Youngs scored for Bolton Wanderers U18s last weekend as the Baby Whites were beaten 4-1 at league leaders Fulham.

After a positive start to the game from the visitors, the Cottagers opened the scoring on the stroke of half time courtesy of Dembele's 30-yard volley.

The second half opened as the first finished and Patrick Roberts provided Richard Evans for the hosts to grab their second of the morning.

Roberts then went from creator to taker moments later, meeting a cross from Tom Richards with a well taken first time finish.

Wanderers bravely fought back despite the set-back, pushing the Cottagers back into their own half and were rewarded with a goal as Youngs hit a 20-yard strike beyond Marek Rodak.

The Baby Whites committed men forward in an attempt to fight their way back into the game, but Fulham held on and eventually scored their fourth in stoppage time.

Academy head coach David Lee said: "Today was a great learning curve for all the players, especially having eight first years starting the game. We also had two under-16s and two under-15s on the bench.

"Fulham have been the best team we have played this season. Now our benchmark has to be to match their standard."

LETTER TO FOUNDER CLUBS

2nd March,

Every year it is becoming more and more difficult for football clubs of any standing to meet their friendly engagements and even arrange friendly matches. The consequence is that at the last moment, through cup-tie interference, clubs are compelled to take on teams who will not attract the public.

I beg to tender the following suggestion as a means of getting over the difficulty: that ten or twelve of the most prominent clubs in England combine to arrange home-and-away fixtures each season, the said fixtures to be arranged at a friendly conference about the same time as the International Conference

This combination might be known as the Association Football Union, and could be managed by representative from each club. Of course, this is in no way to interfere with the National Association; even the suggested matches might be played under cup-tie rules. However, this is a detail.

My object in writing to you at present is merely to draw your attention to the subject, and to suggest a friendly conference to discuss the matter more fully. I would take it as a favour if you would kindly think the matter over, and make whatever suggestions you deem necessary. I am only writing to the following – Blackburn Rovers, Bolton Wanderers, Preston North End, West Bromwich Albion, and Aston Villa, and would like to hear what other clubs you would suggest.

I am, yours very truly,

William McGregor
(Aston Villa F.C.)

WANDERERS*0*NORWICH CITY*1

Jamar Loza's goal against the run of play saw the Whites Under-21s lose 1-0 at home against Norwich City at the County Ground last Monday.

The centre forward hit the decisive strike shortly before half time and despite Bolton enjoying a number of chances to level the scores in the second half; they were ultimately thwarted by the experienced John Ruddy in the Canaries' goal.

Before the game against the Norfolk outfit, Wanderers were unbeaten in their last four outings including a 1-1 home draw against an experienced Manchester City outfit which included Champions League winner Maicon and England international Micah Richards.

Heading into the game following their 1-0 win over Reading at the Reebok the previous Thursday, the Whites started brightly with Niall Maher testing the Norwich defence inside the opening minute of the game.

Maher was again troubling the visitors just moments later after he was played in by Jack Sampson, but goalkeeper Ruddy smothered his powerful shot.

Cian Bolger went close to notching his second goal in as many games in the tenth minute as he attempted to get his head on the end of Joe McKee's lofty free-kick, but the defender just failed to make contact.

The Bolton captain went within inches of finding the back of the net yet again in the 18th minute when his shot from two yards out was cleared off the line, with Sampson also going close after firing the rebound into a resilient Norwich defence.

Having withstood a tirade of Bolton pressure, Norwich finally found an opening as Ewan McNeil powered in on goal, but the left back fired his shot over Rob Lainton's crossbar.

Normal service was soon resumed though, with Sampson collecting Adam Blakeman's superb through ball just inside the area, but the big striker fired inches wide.

Despite their dominance however, Wanderers were undone just seven minutes before the break as the ever dangerous Loza pounced on Sam Kelly's downfield pass and slotted the ball home under the advancing Lainton to give the Canaries the lead against the run of play.

The Whites were not to be deterred however with both McKee and Sampson going close to levelling the scores before the half time whistle, but their efforts were in vain.

Buoyed by their goal, Norwich began the second half with more gusto than they did the first with Loza heading the ball into the path of Rhys Browne early on, but he failed to convert the opportunity.

Wanderers looked certain to equalise in the 51st minute after McKee played the ball down the line for Maher who powered into the area, but the full-back's shot flashed across the face of goal with Ruddy nowhere to be seen.

The chance appeared to rejuvenate Bolton, with Clough again forcing the Norwich goalkeeper into a smart save from close range after collecting Adam Blakeman's quickly taken free-kick.

With Bolton virtually camped in Norwich's half, Clough looked to have brought his side level in the 77th minute as he unleashed a curling effort from just outside the area, but Ruddy pulled off yet another impressive save to keep the striker at bay.

As the clock ticked down both Iliev and Clough forced their way into the visitors' penalty area, but it was to no avail as the Canaries held out for the victory.

Wanderers: Lainton, Maher, Kellett, McQuade, Bolger, Threlkeld, McKee (Iliev, 54), Blakeman, Sampson, Clough, Odelusi (Subs not used: Sievers, Dennis, Holding, Hamer)

Norwich: Ruddy, Carroll, McNeil, Nkumu, Sheriff, Gafaiti, Hodd, Clunan, Loza, Browne, Kelly (Subs not used: Heath, Steer, St Louis, Efete)

SAM BAILEY

THE MANAGER TAKES A KEEN INTEREST IN HOW WE ARE DOING WHICH IS GREAT

WORDS: EMMA NORRIS

Now a regular fixture for the Whites' Under 18s, first year scholar Sam Bailey believes that he owes everything to his parents.

Having shown promise from an early age on the pitch, his mother and father decided to form a football team for youngsters in the Lancaster area when he was just four.

Albeit an idea that was initially meant to allow the midfielder and his younger brother Charlie an opportunity to play the game on a regular basis, Bailey has no doubt that their hard work has ultimately made him the player he is today.

"Them putting the team together has definitely had a massive impact, as well as helping me to get me a lot of friends when I was younger," he explained.

"As soon as they created the team, my mates were eager to come too - they just wanted to help us all out and it went from there really."

Once an established side, the Halton Hotshots went from strength to strength with Bailey in particular benefiting from their success as he was scouted by Blackburn Rovers at the age of nine.

When settled at Ewood Park, he developed a reputation as a reliable central midfielder, but his world was to be turned upside down when he was 13 as the situation with Rovers turned somewhat sour.

"It was great when I went to Blackburn," he said. "I was quite a popular player there, but then it all changed as one coach took a dislike to me so I left.

"After that, I played locally with my brother's team Bare Rangers as well as a men's team called Highgrove FC.

"I think my time with them helped me realise the player I was and I came out of my shell there - I was actually playing seven aside for them at Morecambe's Globe Arena when I was scouted by Bolton."

Having been invited to the club on an initial six week trial period, Bailey impressed instantly to be signed up on just his second training session and was immediately put into the Under 16 set-up.

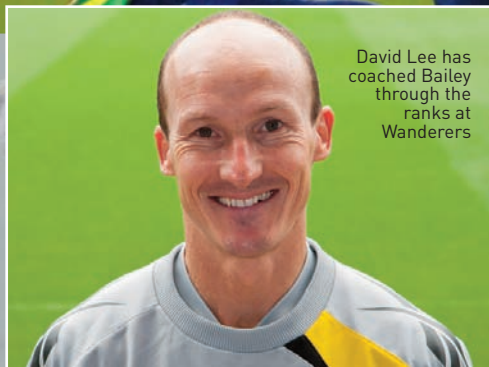

His scholarship was soon to follow – a moment the youngster claimed is the highlight of his career so far.

"It was an unbelievable feeling," he confessed. "It's what you dream of when you're younger – my parents were over the moon and everyone in my family was crying too!"

After playing a crucial part in the Baby Whites' impressive campaign, the 17-year-old hopes that this is just the start for both himself and his team mates as they aim to make the breakthrough in the coming years.

"It's been a brilliant season, but we just want to carry on our form and finish as high as we can really – Dougie Freedman is helping us a lot too.

He added: "He's so interested in us and how we're doing, and obviously with the likes of Chris Lester and Zach Clough breaking through the ranks at the minute it's really inspiring for the rest of us and proves it can be done."

David Lee has coached Bailey through the ranks at Wanderers

OPPOSITION SUMMARY

Now in their fourth season in the Championship, Middlesbrough have been knocking on the promotion door for the last three years but have narrowly missed out on a place in the top six.

Starting the season well with notable wins over Crystal Palace, Blackburn Rovers and Burnley, the north east outfit secured 13 points out of 15 available in October before recording another three wins in November to close in on the automatic promotion places.

Boro's impressive Championship form continued until the end of 2012 but a 3-1 defeat away at Derby County on New Year's Day triggered the start of a poor run.

Despite not enjoying their start to 2013, with only three league wins recorded, Boro will head to the Reebok Stadium brimming with confidence following their 1-0 home win over promotion hopefuls Nottingham Forest on Tuesday night after Mustapha Carayol's first half goal.

MATCH FROM THE PAST

DATE: 04/04/09

RESULT: BOLTON WANDERERS 4-1 MIDDLESBROUGH

VENUE: REEBOK STADIUM, BOLTON

The last time Wanderers faced Middlesbrough at the Reebok Stadium, the Whites ran out 4-1 winners on Saturday 4th April 2009.

Kevin Davies handed Bolton the lead inside the opening eight minutes, but were pegged back after a cool finish from Gary O'Neil.

With Middlesbrough losing skipper Emanuel Pogatetz through injury, Bolton regained the lead three minutes before the interval with Gary Cahill on target for Gary Megson's men.

Middlesbrough, who were fighting against relegation from the Premier League, continued to push bodies forward but Bolton hit a decisive blow with 12 minutes remaining to seal all three points.

Winning a free-kick on the right, Matt Taylor delivered a looping free-kick which eluded everybody and nestled past Brad Jones in the back of the net.

Jamaican international Ricardo Gardner completed the rout for Wanderers in the closing minutes when he turned home a Taylor cross.

THE LAST MEETING

Date: 27/10/2012 Result: Boro 2–1 Wanderers Venue: Riverside stadium

A second-half double from Scott McDonald ensured that Wanderers returned from their first trip to the Riverside Stadium in four years with nothing to show for their efforts.

Things had been looking good for Bolton at the break as they went in with a 1-0 lead through Chung- Yong's first goal since April 2011.

But strikes from Middlesbrough's Australian striker – a tap-in on 66 minutes and a close-range header five minutes before full-time – decided the game in the home side's favour.

JOE RILEY ATTENDS BWCT CERTIFICATE PRESENTATION

Joe Riley visited Ladybridge High School recently to present certificates to young budding footballers who had completed the BWCT School of Football Easter holiday camp.

The football camps engaged with over 75 participants over the week and taught the children basic footballing skills before putting them to the test in small sided games. Joe went along to present certificates of achievement to the children and also see the tips they had picked up over the week.

For more information on the BWCT School of Football courses visit www.bwct.org.uk

WANDERERS TRIO VISIT MATCH ATTAX TOUR

The Easter half term saw Bolton Wanderers play host to the Topps Match Attax free Swap and Play event with fans from all over the region attending to get their hands on cards that they needed to complete their collections and also meet Josh Vela, Jay Lynch and Sanmi Odelusi.

The young Wanderers trio were on hand to meet fans and their families as well as sign autographs and pose for pictures along with Lofty the Lion.

WHITE STARS GO BACK TO SCHOOL

Andrew Lonergan and Matt Mills went along to St Michael's Primary School in Great Lever last week to meet Year Five pupils who are currently working on the P.A.S.S project delivered by BWCT.

The children quizzed the pair on all things Wanderers as well as their hobbies outside football, their favourite type of music and food and their most memorable career highlight to date. Andrew and Matt also spent time speaking to the pupils about the importance of hard work and putting a lot of time and effort into your education.

WANDERERS PAIR TEACH STUDENTS ABOUT RESPECT

Darren Pratley and Craig Davies visited Bolton College on Thursday 11 April to give its annual RESPECT campaign a boost and speak to the learners about how they demonstrate respect, both on and off the pitch, as a result of the College's ongoing partnership with the club.

Bolton College launched the RESPECT campaign earlier this year with the aim of engaging students and encouraging them to demonstrate high standards of behaviour in all aspects of their life.

DANIEL CELEBRATES HIS BIRTHDAY IN STYLE

At our last home game against Wolves, fan Daniel Scott and his dad Tim made the 200 plus mile round trip to the Reebok from Lincolnshire to celebrate Daniel's 16th birthday.

Dad Tim arranged for his son to have a Special Occasion Treat and meet skipper Kevin Davies ahead of the game against Dean Saunders' men.

The pair were introduced to Wanderers by Fred Thompson of Arctic Refrigeration. Fred, a Lifeline Member and avid Bolton supporter suggested to Tim that he should take Daniel to watch Wanderers face either Manchester United, Liverpool or Chelsea.

The first game they attended came on the 30th April 2005 against Chelsea with Jose Mourinho's side winning the Premier League title at the Reebok. However, Daniel and Tim both found themselves quickly becoming Whites supporters.

The highlight for the pair was when Frank Lampard blazed over the bar and hit Daniel on the head. His dad joked his son has never been the same since.

Ever since Bolton's game against Chelsea, they have attended Bolton Wanderers games on a regular basis and Daniel attends virtually every away game with his friends alongside his trips to the Reebok.

We would like to thank Tim and Dan for their continued support plus all of our other guests who have booked the Special Occasion Treat package this season.

We will re-launch the package again next season and we will be taking bookings from August onwards.
